

News Update - SGX welcomes Rod Banus as Senior Advisor for Commodities

10 August 2010 – Singapore Exchange (SGX) is pleased to welcome Mr Rod Banus as Senior Advisor for Commodities.

Mr Banus comes from Barclays Capital where he was previously Head of Listed Product, Prime Services Asia. His responsibilities included building and maintaining client access to Asia and managing the bank's relationship with Asian exchanges and regulators. Highlights of his 27-year career in the financial industry include options and futures trading, connectivity execution and operations.

In his new role, Mr Banus will advise SGX on its efforts to tap the rising global interest in Asian commodities.

"SGX is committed to strengthening its commodities suite and meeting growing investor appetite for Asian commodity products. Rod brings with him a wealth of experience and knowledge which we believe will enhance SGX's position as the Asian Gateway for commodities," said Mr Gan Seow Ann, President of SGX.
